2017 AIA Asheville Design Awards

ELIGIBILITY

- AIA Asheville members who are registered architects are eligible regardless of project location or architect's residence
- Registered architects practicing within AIA Asheville boundaries (18 counties in WNC) are eligible regardless of project's location
- Work located within AIA Asheville boundaries (18 counties in WNC) is eligible regardless of the architect's residence or location of primary office. If the design architect is not registered in NC, the NC licensed architect of record must be credited.

DESIGN AWARDS CATEGORIES:

- Design Award
- Unrealized Project Award
- Residential Design Award
- Residential Renovation Award
- Divine Detail Award

ENTRY GUIDELINES:

Projects must have been completed within the last 10 years. Projects that have previously received AIA Asheville awards are not eligible.

All projects will be judged on the basis of design and architectural excellence. The jury will determine the final number of awards and whether to confer honor, merit, or citation awards. The jury will have the authority to identify categories within design, such as interiors, historical preservation, etc.

Unrealized Projects shall recognize un-built architecture as well as theoretical or conceptual work. Projects cannot have been undertaken for academic credit.

Residential submissions must be single family residential projects.

Divine Detail recognizes a specific detail of a project. The jury will review a single graphic of the detail that includes all images and information to adequately describe the detail

DIGITAL ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Submission will be through the online portal system available here. First time users will setup a login profile. Members who submitted for the AIA North Carolina design awards can use the same profile for the AIA Asheville Design Awards submission. In order for member pricing, they must enter their member number on the registration page. Members submitting more than one project can enter the Member Discount Code Asheville17 to receive the discount for additional submissions at checkout. Information requirement includes:

- Concealed Identification Form
Format: Digital
- Photo Release Form
Format: Digital
- Descriptive Data Form – Design Awards
Format: Digital
- Descriptive Data Form – Residential Awards
Format: Digital
- Descriptive Data Form – Divine Detail Award
Format: Digital

PHOTOGRAPHS / DRAWINGS / DIAGRAMS

Photos may be in color or black and white. Include descriptive plans, sections, and elevations to explain the design solution. Please add graphic scale to the plans. Every submission should clearly depict the relationship of the project to its site context. Diagrams are often helpful in showing concepts and context. An image of each building face should be evident in the submission. At least one interior image should be included. Please note that jurors will view digital images. Be sensitive to the amount of information conveyed in a single slide.

DESCRIPTIVE DATA

A form is provided as a guide to create the Descriptive Data Sheet. The format provided must be used without the addition of photographs, drawings, lines, or color. The "Short Description of Project" should be 100 words or less and will be read aloud while the jury views electronic images during the first phase of the jury process and later used for publication of the winners. Following the short description will be the "Architect's Statement Concerning Program and Solution" and "Type of Construction".

CONCEALED IDENTIFICATION

A Form is provided to record the concealed identification for your project. All information requested on the form must be included. Should your submission receive an award, material for publicity and certificates will be taken directly from the information provided on this form. The architect for the project shall be the "Architect of Record", i.e. the architect(s) or firm with whom the owner contracted. A limited number of individual names may be added to the award as long as the parties involved agree. Proper and accurate credit for the project is the responsibility of the entrant. In case of disputes or ambiguities about the proper credit, the award may be deferred.

AWARDS

Certificates for all award-winning projects will be presented at the AIA Asheville Design Awards Program. Winners will receive two certificates. Additional certificates will be available at the expense of the award recipient.

PUBLICATION

AIA-Asheville intends to publish the entries that receive awards. Therefore, it is essential that drawings and photographs not be restricted against publication. It is the entrant's responsibility to clear all drawings and photographs for release. A form is provided in order to secure the necessary permission.
